

FRIGHTFEST

2012 FEATURE OR SHORT FILM SUBMISSION FORM

GENERAL INFORMATION

The London FrightFest is the UK's foremost fantasy and horror film festival. FrightFest is held each August at the Empire Cinema, Leicester Square, London, named one of the ten best cinemas in the world. The projection and sound is second to none and the cinemas location is right in the heart of London's glamorous West End. The dates for the 2012 festival are the 23rd to 27th of August. We also host two other annual events. Our Halloween All-Nighter on the nearest Saturday to Halloween and FrightFest Glasgow in late February each year.

SUBMISSION DEADLINES

The submission process is open all year round. The closing date for submissions for FrightFest Glasgow 2012 - (25th - 26th February) is 1st December 2011, the main FrightFest event in August is the 1st June 2012 and our Halloween All-Nighter in October is the 1st September 2012.

SUBMISSION FORMAT

Submissions can only be accepted on DVDs. Any region. We do not return screeners.

ENTRY FEE

There is no entry fee.

IF YOUR FILM IS ACCEPTED

If your feature is accepted you must be able to supply a 35 mm print, DCP, HD CAM SR, HD CAM tape or a Blu-ray disc. If your short is accepted we will also accept on Digi Beta. Because of the size of the Empire Cinema's screen, the UK's largest, we can't screen from SD DVDs. All projection materials must be in London ten days prior to the festival.

PRESS MATERIALS

If your film is accepted you must be able to supply publicity materials in the form of synopsis, images and press cuttings. These must be in London by the 1st of July. It's usually best to send these on a disc with your submission. Please don't send bulky paper press kits.
